Introduction

The infliction of 'death by PowerPoint' should be outlawed and yet large numbers of business executives seem to think they can get away with it. A mesmerising presentation on the other hand, is remembered and talked about, attracting valuable publicity to the presenter's presentation.

Who Should Attend?

Anyone who needs to inform, educate, persuade or entertain an audience, either as a one-off or as a regular occurrence.

Benefits

This workshop will help participants:

- Develop a whole new mindset around presenting;
- Plan a thoroughly good presentation;
- Gain priceless insights into their strengths and weaknesses as a presenter;
- Deliver material using their inherent strengths;
- Learn how and when PowerPoint and other aids add enormous value;
- Understand the power of story telling.

Course Content

Participants will examine the following

- Adjusting your mindset;
- How to decide what your audience wants;
- The most effective methods of planning;
- Posture and stance;
- Tone of voice;
- Examples and illustrations;
- Unleashing the passion;
- What not to wear;
- Visual aids – why, what, where, when and how;
- Story telling.
